

Processed by: RS
Date: 12/29/77

COOK

COOK, RICHARD W. (OH-358) 73 pages OPEN

Assistant general manager for manufacturing A.E.C., 1954; Deputy general manager A.E.C., 1954-58.

DESCRIPTION: Interview #1. Personal background. Comments re his career with the Army Quartermaster corps and Corps of Engineers during World War II; personnel training during World War II; his work at Ft. Belvoir, Virginia; his work with the Manhattan Project at Oak Ridge, Tennessee; life in Oak Ridge; his work with A.E.C. as assistant general manager for manufacturing, 1954; his work with A.E.C. as deputy general manager responsible for production, 1954-58; his relationship with TVA; and comments re Walter Bedell Smith.

[Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Maclyn P. Burg, 1975]