

Processed by: RS
Date: 7/28/78

MANION

MANION, CLARENCE (OH-371) 98 pages Open

Lawyer, Chairman of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, 1953-54.

DESCRIPTION: Interview #1. Personal background. Comments re the Vietnam conflict; President John Cavanaugh of Notre Dame; his philosophy of teaching law; problems in defining and interpreting the Constitution; his relationship with students and teaching experiences; the development of the "Manion Forum"; his activity in the Indiana Democratic party; his selection as the Indiana director of the National Emergency Council, 1935; his support of Robert Taft for President in 1952; Paul Hoffman's role in DDE's 1952 nomination; his appointment as chairman of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; his relationship with Sherman Adams; states rights; Bricker amendment; his activities as chairman of the Commission on Intergovernmental Relations; his resignation as chairman of the Commission; Senator Herman Welker; Herbert Brownell; and the appointment of Earl Warren as Chief Justice.

[Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Maclyn P. Burg, 1976]