

RICHARD M. BISSELL JR. PAPERS
COVENANT GROUP SERIES
1967 - 1988; Box 1

SERIES DESCRIPTION

The Covenant Insurance Group was an insurance company in Hartford, Connecticut. Richard M. Bissell served as a member of the Board of Directors of the Covenant Mutual and Covenant Life Insurance Companies from 1974 to 1981. He also served as an independent consultant for Covenant and in this capacity authored analytical papers on economic topics including the economic climate at set points in time and the international value of the dollar. He further advised Covenant on the creation of a venture capital company.

This series contains multiple document formats including correspondence, newspaper clippings, published materials, travel materials, analytical papers and other documentation in support of Bissell's work for the Covenant Group. The folders are arranged alphabetically and the materials are filed in reverse chronological order.

While several examples are contained in this series, the bulk of the talks Bissell gave and the papers he authored for the Covenant Group and its subsidiaries are contained in the Talks and Papers Series of this collection. Additional correspondence concerning the Covenant Group is available in the Correspondence Series of this collection.

As was his apparent practice, many of Bissell's notes in this series are written on the reverse of University of Hartford budget documents.
