

Processed by: DAD
Date: 1/27/75

COOK

COOK, HOWARD A. (OH-175) 16 pages PRCQ (Columbia)

Chief, Division of Public Liaison, Department of State, 1952-55; President, International House of New York, 1955-present.

Interview #1. Work as chief of Division of Public Liaison, Department of State: John Foster Dulles—giving speeches, and making foreign policy; McCarthyism, Dulles' speeches, and morale among State Department personnel; his philosophy of keeping the public fully informed of Department actions; observations re Carl McCardle. International House and DDE. Assessment of DDE as President.

[Columbia University Oral History Project interview by Don North, 1970]