

Mr. Rabb --

Mr. Morgan didn't say much about this <sup>incoming</sup> letter and I didn't think I should ask him outright how he felt about the suggestion -- but he did indicate that our job would be a great deal easier if the statement were made and, if I understood his implication correctly, that there is nothing in the way of such a statement.

Why don't you discuss with him?
