

Prepared by: EWH
Date: 9/9/97

STAPF

STAPF, CHARLES J. OH-375 67 pp. OPEN
Member of the Board of Directors of the Eisenhower Foundation

DESCRIPTION: Banking background; general comments about Charles Harger, Sam Heller, and Emmett Graham; early days of the Eisenhower Foundation (incl. fund-raising problems, concerns involving the Eisenhower Home); expansion plans (incl. site acquisitions, C.L. Brainard and other individuals involved, establishing boundary lines, concerns regarding developments adjacent to Foundation property); general comments about [C.A.] Skip Scupin; Board reaction to the federal government's assuming control of the Eisenhower Center; Stapf's contacts with the Eisenhower family (incl. comments about the brothers, Mrs. Ida Eisenhower, the family in general); Eisenhower activities involving the Abilene Band; anecdote concerning a luncheon for [Konrad] Adenauer; comments concerning the location and appearance of the Eisenhower Home.

[Dwight D. Eisenhower Library Oral History Project, interview by Dr. Maclyn P. Burg and Dr. Thomas Soapes, February 4, 1976]