

From: The Abilene Weekly Democrat
Tuesday, Dec. 27, 1881
p. 5, col. 1

A sad accident befel [sic] the ten year-old son of Jacob Brown, of Buckeye township, Saturday, in which he lost his right arm. He was assisting his father in shelling corn, when, in some way, he became entangled in one of the cog wheels, crushing his elbow in such a manner as to cause amputation, which was done yesterday by Dr. A.S. Gish, of this city, assisted by Dr. Crowley, of Salina.

Courtesy of Dickinson County Heritage Center