

John Long's letter about his boyhood and friendship with Dwight
[Eisenhower]
Dated March 6, 1970

“My mother was the first woman of the River Brethern [sic] Church that took off the little white cap claiming that the church put too much faith in it instead of Christ. Mrs. Eisenhower was the second woman that took off the little white cap.”