

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

5/17/54 - McCarthy Hearings - page 2

The discussion concluded with constructive suggestions from the leadership on the possibility of Congressional action to lay down some ground rules on the activities of investigative committees, and with a comment from the President on how he believed only the Senate could accomplish the necessary action. He added that he had long thought the particular Committee had gotten way out of line but that he couldn't presume to tell the Senate about its own business.

Minnich PAM

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~