SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The bulk of the personal papers of Edward A. Bacon span the years from 1896-1968 although the collection contains a Civil War diary (1864) of Martin Bacon, one of Edward Bacon's ancestors.

About two thirds of these papers consist of personal, business, political and official correspondence; memoranda; bank statements and other financial reports; meeting minutes; U.S. Naval Reserve personnel material; cartoons, newsclippings; wills; deeds and other personal financial and property records.

While much of this material is concerned strictly with Mr. Bacon's personal and business affairs, there are scattered items of correspondence and memoranda concerning his various government positions as well as his Republican Party activities. Important subjects covered are: Wisconsin and national Republican politics, especially during the 1930's and early 1940's; Wisconsin banking; Bacon's association with Harvard University; Cutler-Hammer Corporation Operations; Smith Steel Foundry Company, 1937-44 (particularly labor matters); Mr. Bacon's duties in the United States Naval Reserve, 1941-1946; Navy Price Adjustment Board, 1945-46; Export-Import Bank of Washington, 1946-51; and the Antarctic, 1958-60.

A small amount of material concerns Mr. Bacon's official duties as Assistant to the Secretary of the Army for Canal Zone Affairs, 1954; Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Financial Management, 1954-60; member of Tolls Committee for the Saint Lawrence Seaway, and member of Interstate Commission for the Potomac River Basin.

Major correspondents include Arthur Krock, Lew French, Dick Cutler, and Mr. Bacon's relatives. Other correspondents include Richard Nixon; Thomas Dewey; Bernard Baruch, Jr; John D. Rockefeller, Jr.; and Wendell Wilkie.

Approximately one third of this collection consists of Mr. Bacon's poetry, verses, essays, miscellaneous memorabilia, and his post card collection. Among these writings are manuscripts of Light Verse and Worse, a book of poetry which Mr. Bacon published in 1957, and the manuscript of an unpublished book, Dibbie Dear. A number of poems in this segment were published in Light Verse and Worse while other of his writings are probably contained in Some Songs of the South Pole which he published in 1960.
