

APPOINTMENT SCHEDULES SERIES

On March 19, 1998 the Seeley G. Mudd Manuscript Library, Princeton University, Princeton, New Jersey sent to the Eisenhower Library copies of John Foster Dulles' appointment schedules for the years 1950 through 1959. The earliest dated items begin March 13, 1950 although these are preceded by a few undated ones. The last entries are dated May 1959 when John Foster Dulles died. This series consists of 3,128 pages.

The series consists of daily calendars normally with handwritten entries, occasional address and other sketchy information and files entitled "Notes." These "Notes" folders include typed trip schedules, trip diaries, ceremony schedules, lists of future engagements, lists of Secretary Dulles' appearances before Congressional committees or bi-partisan Congressional meetings, and occasional briefing papers such as a summary of the Organization for Trade Cooperation in 1955 and biographical data on Iranian officials prepared in conjunction with Dulles' trip to Tehran, Iran January 24-26, 1958.

There are gaps in the coverage as many calendar pages are blank. One notable omission is the lack of entries recording Dulles' appointments during the 1952 campaign.
