Approximate number of pages: 5,000
Approximate number of items: 4,000

By agreement with the donor the following classes of documents will be withheld from research use:

1. Papers relating to family and private business affairs.
2. Papers relating to family and private business affairs of other persons who have had correspondence with my husband.
3. Papers relating to investigations of individuals or to appointments and personnel matters.
4. Papers containing statements made by or to my late husband in confidence unless in the judgment of the Director of the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library the reason for confidentiality no longer exists.
5. All other papers which contain information or statements that might be used to injure, harass, or damage any living person.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The papers of Philip DeWitt Ginder span the years 1927-68, with the heaviest concentration of documents falling in the period 1945 to 1954. The papers are made up of two accessions which will be described separately.

Accession 73-39, which was received in April, 1973, contains items from the earlier period of General Ginder's life and career. Accession 73-39 is arranged in four series. The first series, Personal Correspondence, consists of letters to and from Ginder's first wife, and letters from friends of General Ginder. Date coverage is 1930 to 1950. Subjects include both personal and military-related matters. The second series, Official Military Records, documents General Ginder's career from his first assignment after leaving West Point (1927) through 1954. Included are copies of orders, efficiency reports, other records and assorted memorabilia. Notably missing are documents from the World War II and Korean War periods. The third series, Personal Business, includes invoices, receipts, allotment matters, bills, etc. accumulated during the period 1934-50. The fourth series, Miscellaneous Memorabilia, is made up of individual items such as songs, poems, postcards, souvenirs, and clippings, as well as numerous scrapbooks and citations. The earliest scrapbook contains Calvert family (Martha Calvert Ginder's family) photographs from the 1920's and 1930's. The later scrapbooks, dating from 1946 to 1955, relate to General Ginder's military career. Also included are some oversize certificates and citations. The latest item in the collection is a laminated newspaper obituary noting General Ginder's death in 1968.

One map, numerous museum items, and 223 photographs were turned over to the Dwight D. Eisenhower Museum and the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library Audio-Visual Collection.

The other accession, 71-74, which was received in May of 1971, consists of three series. The first is general correspondence, 1950-52, consisting mainly of letters to General Ginder and/or Jean Dalrymple, filed alphabetically. Within each lettered folder, however, the letters are unarranged. The date coverage is 1950-52. The subject matter is both personal and official, and some of the documents carry security classifications. Correspondents include family, friends, and military associates of General Ginder and/or Jean Dalrymple.

The second series consists of letters from General Ginder to Jean Dalrymple. These unarranged letters were, for the most part, written from Berlin and Korea during the years 1951-53. The subject matter generally is highly personal, but contains discussions of the Korean War and General Ginder's role in it.

The third series consists of memorabilia, such as clippings and tear sheets from both civilian and Army newspapers about General Ginder or Jean Dalrymple, postcards, a calendar, and scrapbook material. These items are dated 1951-1955.

153 photographs and four books were turned over to the Dwight D. Eisenhower Library Audio-Visual and Book Collection for proper handling.

NOTE ON PROVENANCE: In the cases of both accessions, the documents arrived largely unarranged. Reorganization, including sorting, and devising more adequate folder titles, was necessary to make the collections usable for research.
