

C. H. PINKHAM & SON

The dry goods and clothing store located on Cedar Street and conducted by C. H. Pinkham & Son, became established twenty-one years ago. The stock of goods carried is complete and carefully selected to meet the requirements of a discriminating public. The goods are up-to-date in style, prices positively as low as a fair margin of profit will allow. Satisfaction is guaranteed, while from six to seven courteous assistants take pleasure in displaying the goods to any prospective customer. The latest patterns in dry goods, ladies ready-to-wear clothing, and in fact everything to be found in the large stores in the metropolis, can be found at this place. Two floors, each 25 by 80 feet are occupied by the display of the immense stock. The live and enterprising proprietors of this establishment are Mr. C.H. Pinkham and his son, Mr. Frank Pinkham.

Courtesy of Dickinson County Heritage Center