

From: The Abilene Weekly Chronicle
Friday, Dec. 30, 1881
p. 2, col. 4

A little son of Jacob Brown met with a very serious accident on last Saturday. His arm was caught and terribly crushed in the cogs of a power corn-sheller. It was thought at first that amputation would be necessary, but an effort will be made to save it, although he will undoubtedly be a cripple for life.

Courtesy of Dickinson County Heritage Center