

Abilene Weekly Reflector, June 15, 1899

Abilene Tennis Club

The four tennis courts were all filled last evening by enthusiastic players and some good players and some good playing displayed. Quite a few spectators enjoyed the sport. At a meeting held after the games it was voted to allow the ladies the use of the grounds every afternoon and on Wednesday evenings. This was a very courteous act and will be appreciated by the ladies.